

INTRODUCTION

Message From Our Team

As we move through the spring months, it has been lovely to see so much activity, laughter, and togetherness around Penrose Court. Residents, families, and staff have enjoyed a busy few months filled with entertainment, seasonal celebrations, visits from animals, and opportunities to relax and spend quality time together.

The warmer weather has also allowed everyone to make the most of our outdoor spaces, while activities throughout the home continue to encourage creativity, wellbeing, and social connection. Thank you to all of our staff, relatives, visitors, and supporters who help make Penrose Court such a welcoming and caring environment for everyone.

ACTIVITIES & EVENTS

Duckling Experience

Residents, families, and staff have all been enjoying our very special duckling experience at Penrose Court.

Duck eggs arrived at the home, giving everyone the opportunity to watch the exciting process as the ducklings gradually hatched over the following weeks. Residents loved checking in each day to see the progress, and there was plenty of excitement once the ducklings finally arrived.

The experience brought lots of smiles and conversation throughout the home and was enjoyed by everyone involved.

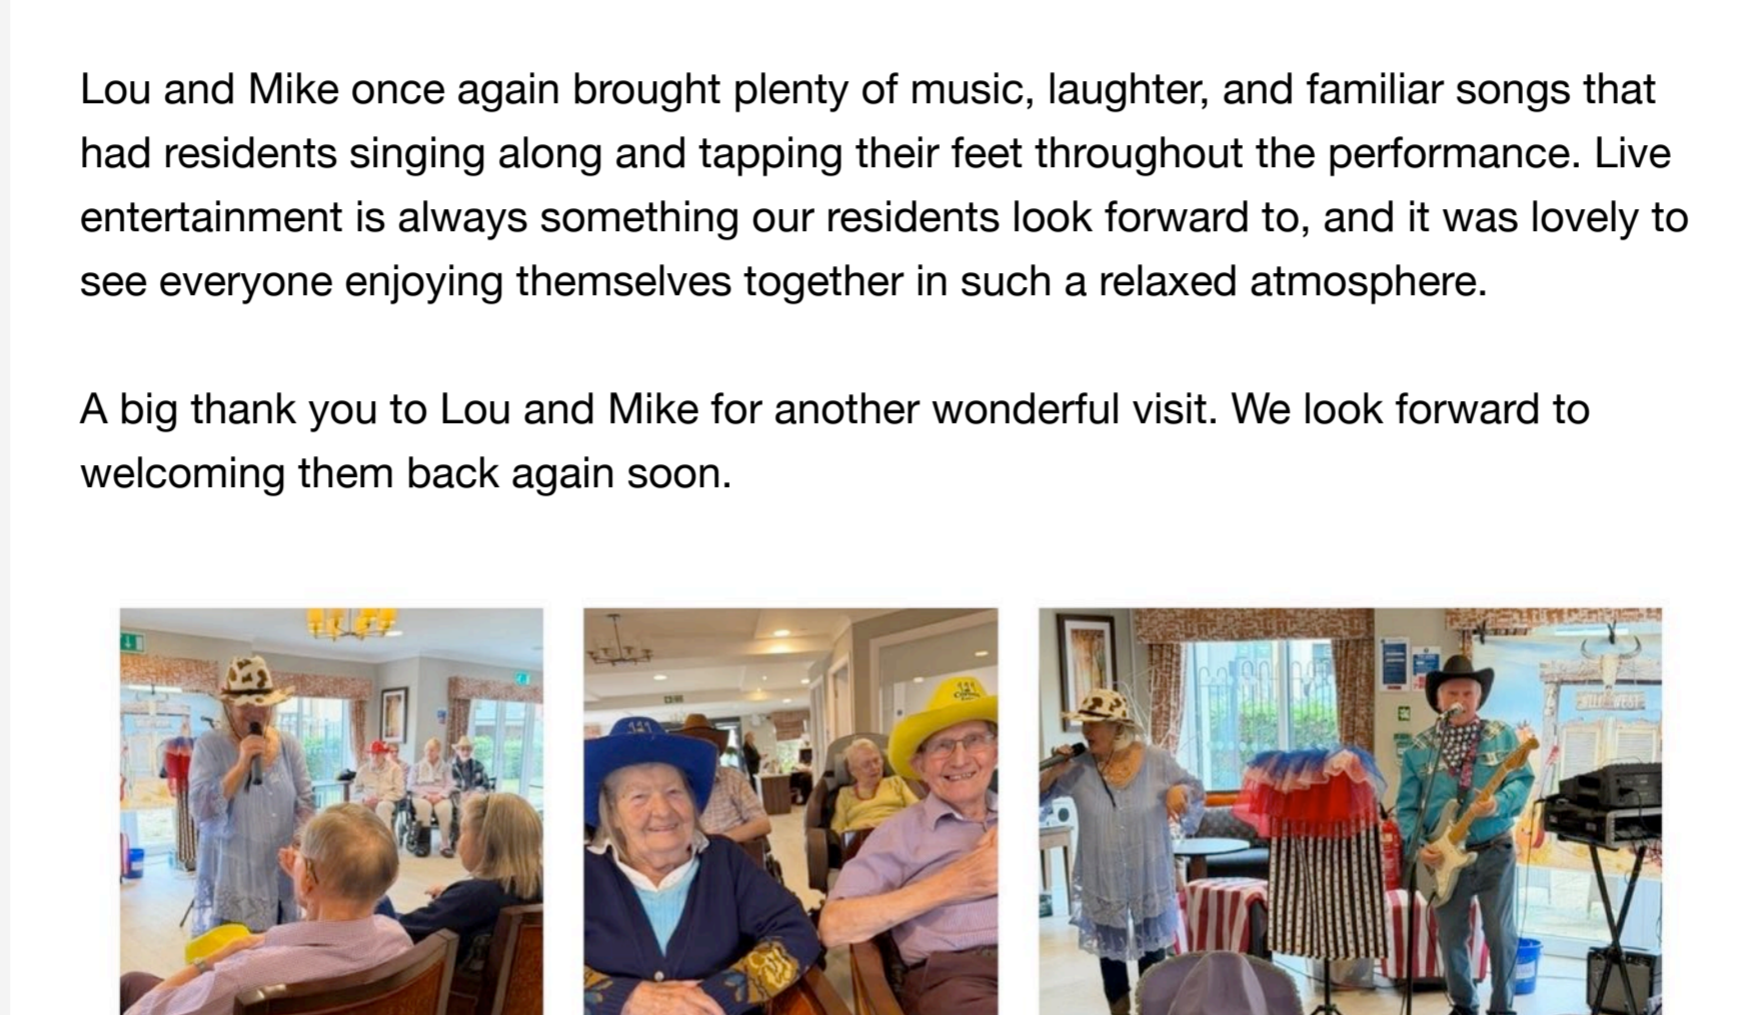

Afternoon Entertainment with Somethin Else

Residents recently enjoyed another fantastic afternoon of entertainment with the ever-popular Somethin Else.

Lou and Mike once again brought plenty of music, laughter, and familiar songs that had residents singing along and tapping their feet throughout the performance. Live entertainment is always something our residents look forward to, and it was lovely to see everyone enjoying themselves together in such a relaxed atmosphere.

A big thank you to Lou and Mike for another wonderful visit. We look forward to welcoming them back again soon.

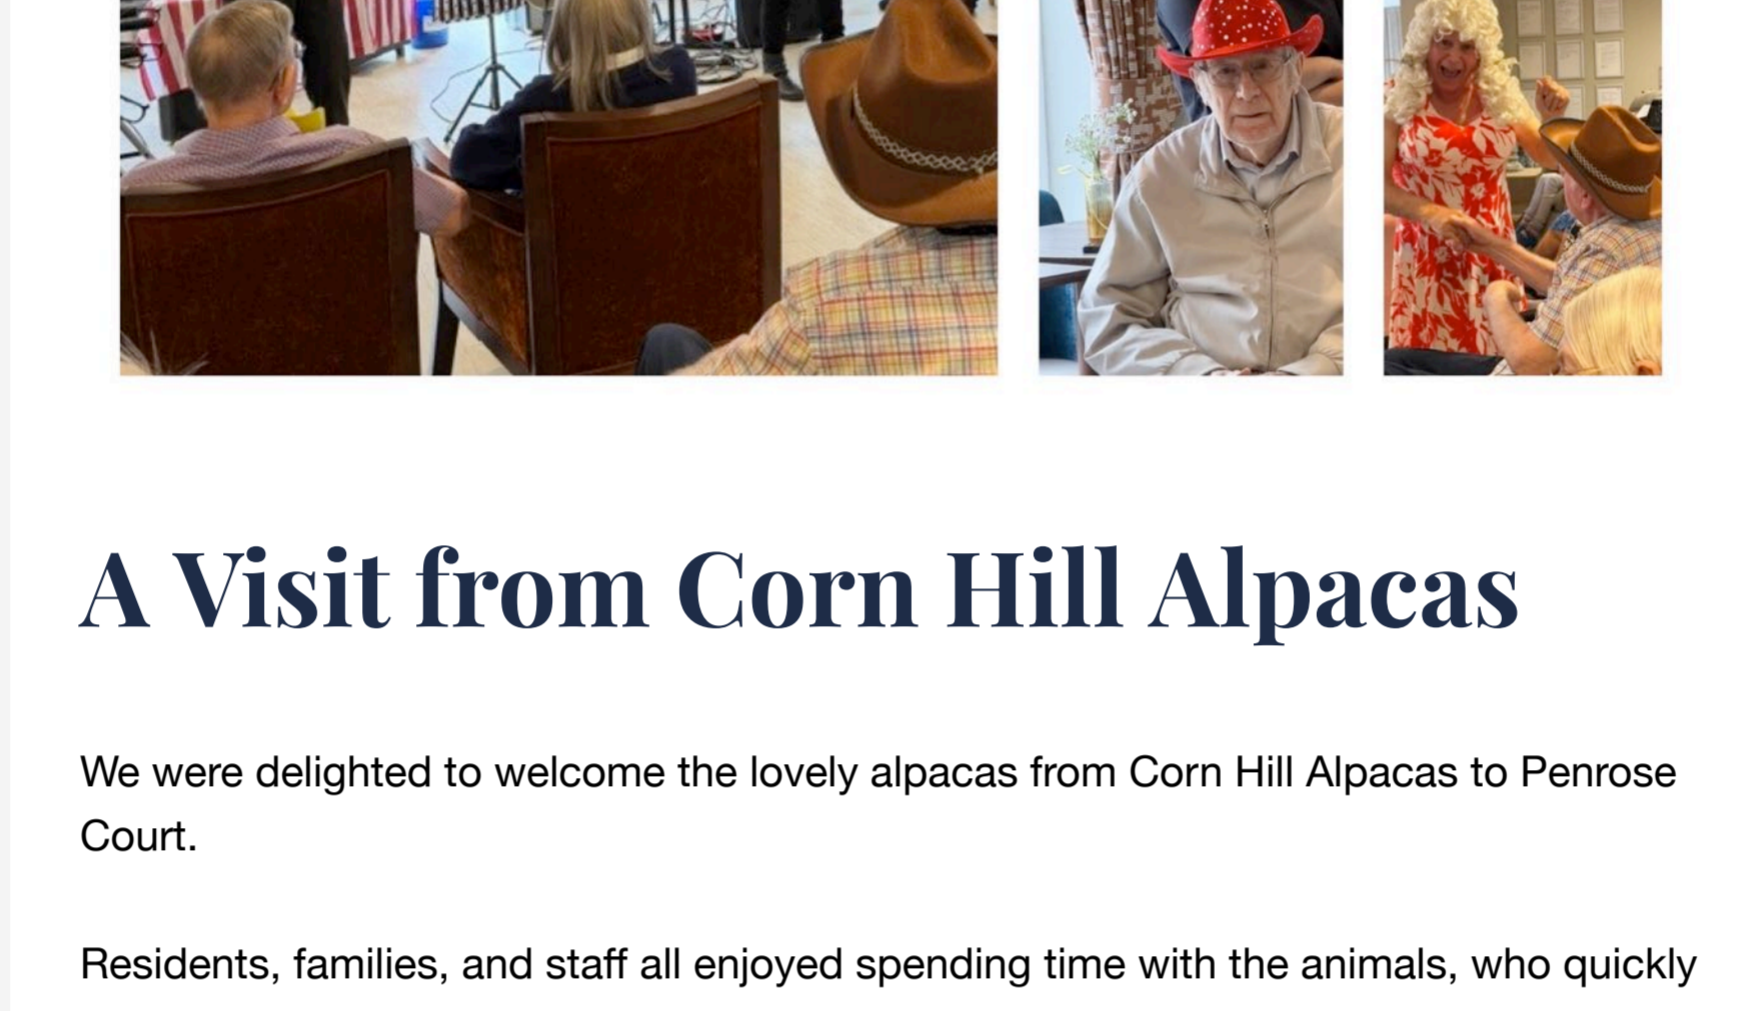

A Visit from Corn Hill Alpacas

We were delighted to welcome the lovely alpacas from Corn Hill Alpacas to Penrose Court.

Residents, families, and staff all enjoyed spending time with the animals, who quickly became the centre of attention during their visit. Animal visits always create lots of smiles and conversation, while also helping residents feel relaxed and engaged.

A huge thank you to Corn Hill Alpacas for such a lovely afternoon. The visit was enjoyed by everyone.

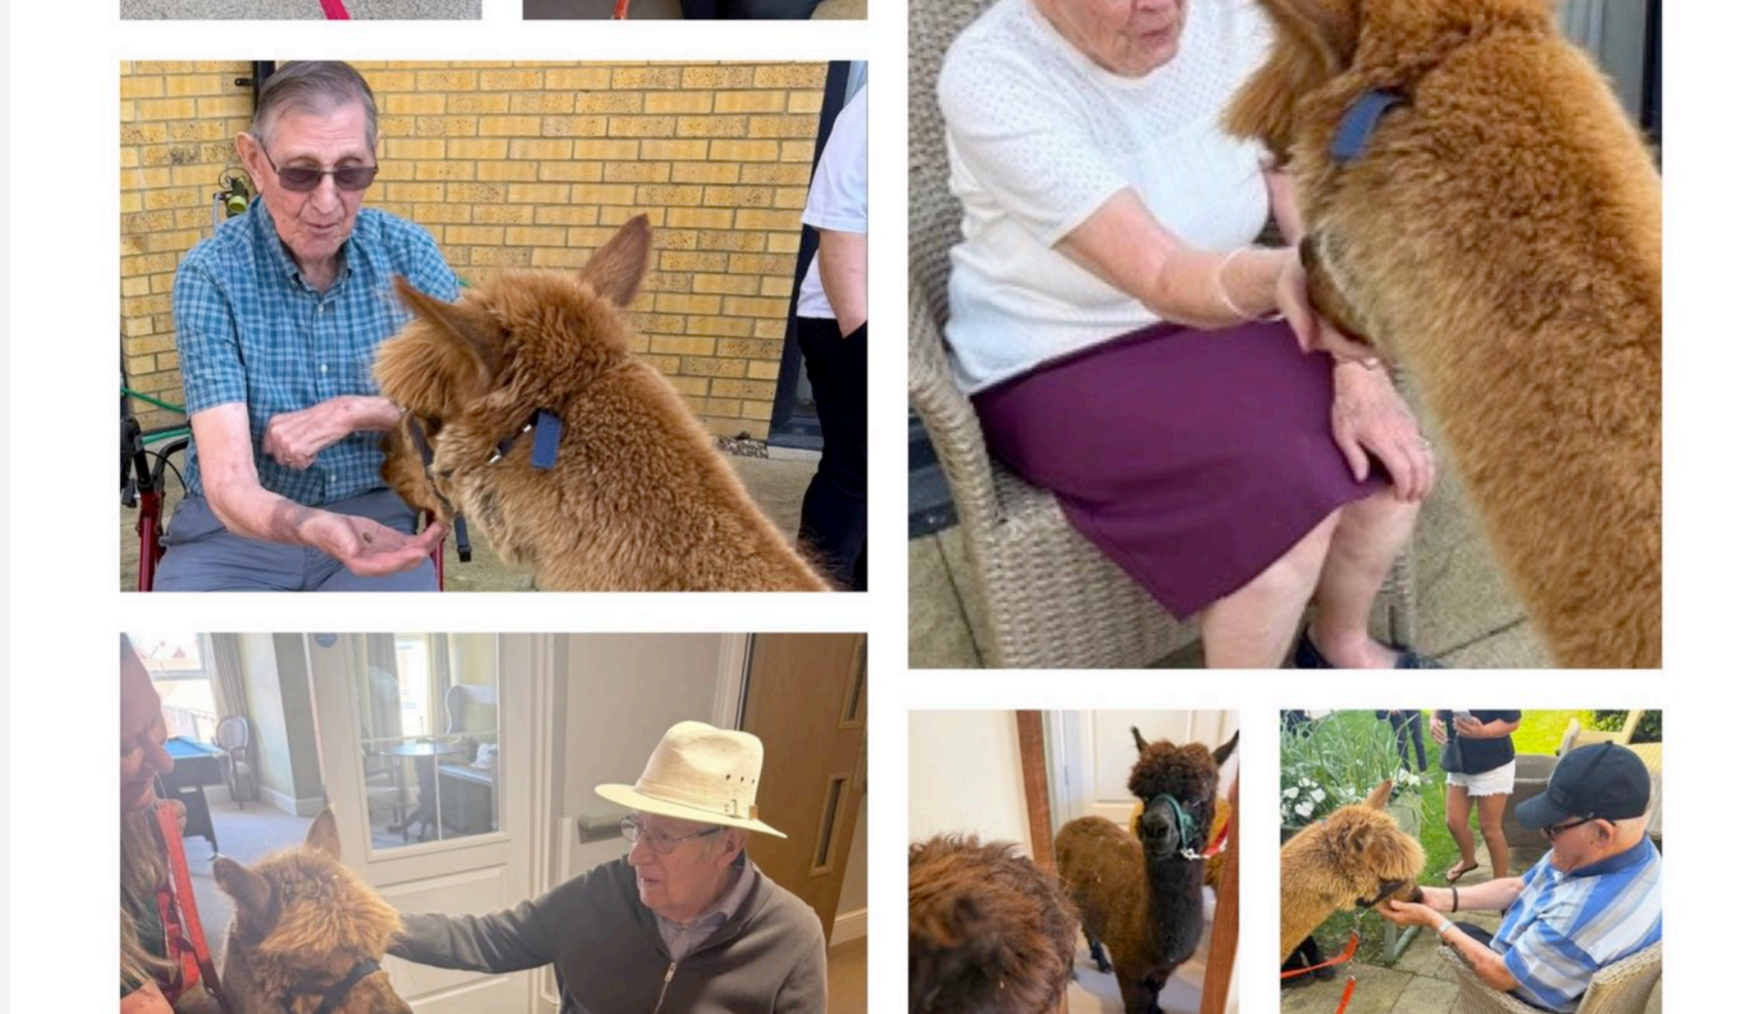

Enjoying the Spring Sunshine

With the warmer weather arriving, residents and their families have been making the most of our garden spaces.

Residents enjoyed relaxing outdoors together with ice cream, soft drinks, and plenty of conversation in the sunshine. These afternoons in the garden provide a lovely opportunity for everyone to unwind, enjoy the fresh air, and spend quality time together.

We are all looking forward to many more sunny afternoons over the coming months.

Wellbeing Week at Penrose Court

During Wellbeing Week, both residents and staff enjoyed taking some time to relax and be pampered.

Mary from Tropic visited the home to provide well-being treatments, while Jay in the salon helped residents feel refreshed and looked after. Alongside the pampering sessions, residents also spent time enjoying arts and crafts activities, creating a calm and social atmosphere throughout the home.

The week gave everyone the opportunity to slow down, focus on wellbeing, and enjoy some gentle activities together.

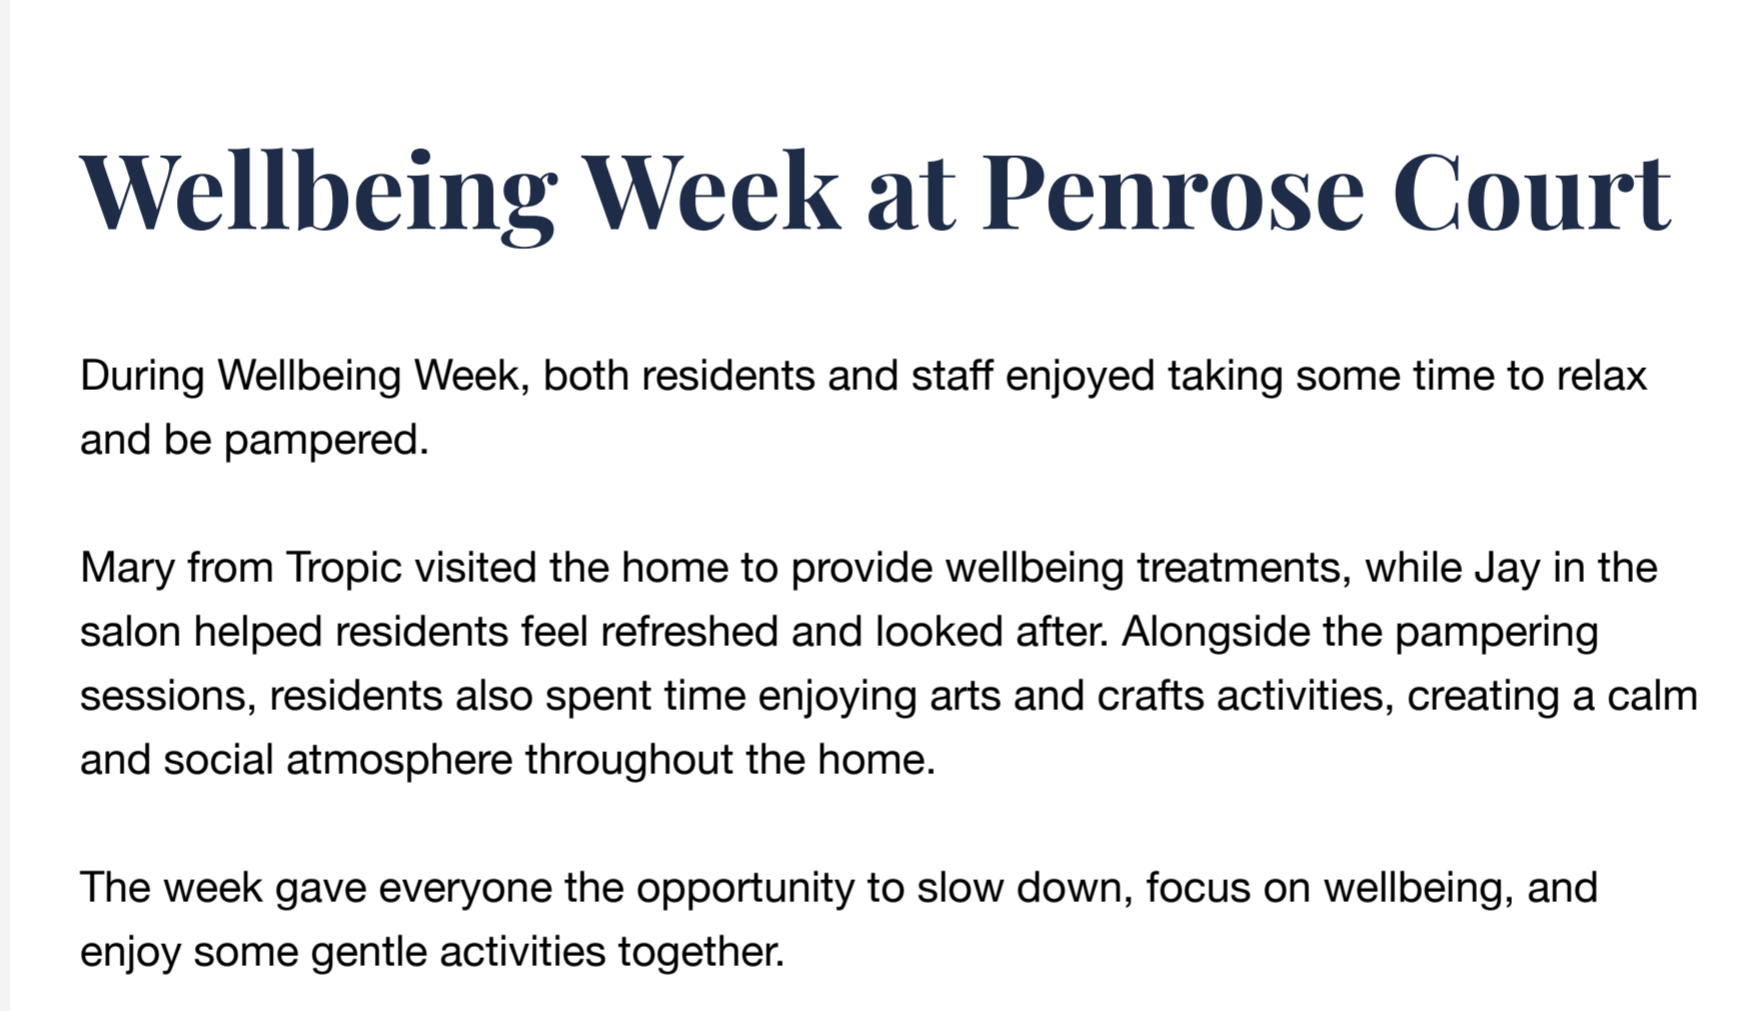

EASTER CELEBRATIONS

Easter Bunny

Easter was well celebrated throughout Penrose Court, with plenty of fun and laughter shared across the home.

The Easter Bunny made a special visit over the weekend, bringing smiles to residents as everyone joined in the celebrations. Residents also enjoyed taking part in Easter activities and spending time together during the festive weekend.

The home was filled with seasonal decorations, sweet treats, and a lovely atmosphere throughout the celebrations.

Successful Easter Fayre

Our recent Easter Fayre was a great success, bringing together residents, families, visitors, and members of the local community for a lovely day.

Thanks to everyone who attended, supported the stalls, and donated prizes, we raised £195.50 towards the residents' fund. Earlier in the month, one of our residents also raised an additional £50 through her Easter raffle, bringing the total raised to £245.50 altogether.

We would like to thank everyone who helped organise the event and everyone who came along to support us.
